

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

—OF—
Warrior Copper Company.

Office With
DELAWARE INCORPORATORS' TRUST COMPANY,
Wilmington, Delaware.

FIRST. The name of this corporation is WARRIOR COPPER COMPANY.

SECOND. Its principal office and place of business in the State of Delaware is to be located in the City of Wilmington, County of Newcastle, and the agent in charge thereof is Delaware Incorporators' Trust Company.

THIRD. The nature of the business and the objects and purposes proposed to be transacted, promoted and carried on are to do any or all of the things herein mentioned, as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do as principal, agent, contractor, trustee or otherwise, either alone or in company with others, and in any part of the world, viz:

To acquire and to own by location, purchase, or otherwise mining claims, mineral lands, mines and mining property, and to develop, work, mine, explore and operate mining claims, mineral lands, mines and mining property for gold, silver, copper, lead and other ores, and to treat said ores with proper appliances, machinery, plants, smelters, reduction plants, &c.; to build railroads, tramways, electric roads, electric light and power lines, telegraph and telephone lines; to purchase, erect and operate any and all kinds of buildings, mining machinery, hoists, reduction plants, smelters and machinery necessary to properly carry on and conduct their mining business.

IN FURTHERANCE, AND NOT IN LIMITATION, of the general powers conferred by the laws of the State of Delaware, it is expressly provided that this corporation shall have also the following powers, viz:

To purchase, take, own, hold, deal in, mortgage or otherwise lien, and to lease, sell, exchange, transfer, or in any manner whatever dispose of real property, wherever situated.

To manufacture, purchase, or acquire in any lawful manner, and to hold, own, mortgage, pledge, sell, transfer, or in any manner dispose of, and to deal and trade in goods, wares, merchandise and property of any and every class and description.

To acquire the good will, rights and property, and to undertake the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of any person, firm, association or corporation; to pay for the same in cash, the stock of this company, bonds or otherwise; to hold or in any manner dispose of the whole or any part of the property so purchased; to conduct in any lawful manner the whole or any part of any business so acquired, and to exercise all the powers necessary or convenient in and about the conduct and management of such business.

To hold, purchase, or otherwise acquire, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness created by other corporation or corporations, and while the holder of such stock to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership—including the right to vote thereon—to the same extent as a natural person might or could do.

To apply for, purchase, or in any manner to acquire and to hold, own, use and operate, or to sell, or in any manner dispose of, or to grant, license, or other rights in respect of, and in any manner deal with, any and all rights, inventions, improvements and processes used in connection with or secured under letters patent or copyrights of the United States or other countries, or otherwise, and to work, operate, or develop the same, and to carry on any business, manufacturing or otherwise, which may be deemed to directly or indirectly effectuate these objects, or any of them.

To enter into, make and perform contracts of every kind with any person, firm, association or corporation, town, city, county, state, territory, or government, and without limit as to amount; to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments, so far as may be permitted by the laws of the State of Delaware.

To have one or more offices out of the State of Delaware and to carry on business and to promote its objects without restriction as to place or amount.

To do any or all of the things herein set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do, and in any part of the world, as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise.

In general, to carry on any other business in connection therewith, whether manufacturing or otherwise, and with all the powers conferred upon corporations by the laws of the State of Delaware.

FOURTH. The amount of the total authorized capital stock of this corporation is One Million Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($1,600,000), divided into One Hundred and Sixty Thousand Shares of the par value of Ten Dollars ($10.00) each. Said stock shall be divided into two classes—common stock and preferred stock. Eighty-five Thousand Shares shall be common stock, and Seventy-five Thousand Shares preferred stock. Said preferred stock shall entitle the holder thereof to receive out of the net earnings of the company, and the company shall be bound to pay, a fixed yearly cumulative dividend of seven per centum, but no more, payable semi-annually before any dividends shall be set apart or paid on the common stock. Said dividends, when earned and declared, shall be payable in January and July. The holders of said preferred stock shall, in case of liquidation or dissolution of the company, be entitled to be paid in full both the principal of their shares and the accrued dividends charged before any amount shall be paid to the holders of the general or common stock.

The amount of capital stock with which it will commence business, if One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), being One Hundred Shares of the par value of Ten Dollars ($10.00) each.

FIFTH. The name and place of residence of each of the subscribers to the capital stock is as follows:

NAME: RESIDENCE:
Harry S. Hopper.....Philadelphia, Pa.
Spencer D. Wright.....Philadelphia, Pa.
Charles A. Chase.....Philadelphia, Pa.
Cornelius Alexander, Jr.....Philadelphia, Pa.
George P. Harrison.....Philadelphia, Pa.

SIXTH. The existence of this corporation is to be perpetual.

SEVENTH. The private property of the stockholders shall not be subject to the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever.

EIGHTH. The directors shall have power to make and to alter the By-Laws; to fix the amount to be reserved as working capital, and to authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens, without limit as to amount, upon the property and franchises of this corporation.

With the consent in writing and pursuant to a vote of the holders of fifty-one per cent of the capital stock issued and outstanding, the directors shall have authority to dispose, in any manner, of the whole property of this corporation.

The By-Laws shall determine whether and to what extent the accounts and books of this corporation, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the stockholders; and no stockholder shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the corporation, except as conferred by law or by the By-Laws, or by resolution of the stockholders.

The stockholders or directors shall have power to hold their meetings and keep the books outside of the State of Delaware, at such places as may be from time to time designated by the By-Laws or by resolution of the stockholders.

The Board of Directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole board, designate two or more of their number to constitute an executive committee, which committee shall for the time being, as provided in said resolution or in the By-Laws of said corporation, have and exercise all the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the company, and have power to authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

Neither the directors nor the members of the executive committee, nor the president nor vice-president, shall be subject to removal during their respective terms of office except for cause, nor shall their terms of office be diminished during their tenure.

It is the intention that the objects specified in the third paragraph hereof shall, except where otherwise expressed in said paragraph, be nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause or paragraph in this Certificate of Incorporation, but that the objects specified in each of the clauses of this charter shall be regarded as independent objects.

We, the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware, do make, record and file this Certificate and do certify that the facts herein stated are true; and we have accordingly hereunto set our respective hands and seals.

Dated at Philadelphia, March 10th, A. D. 1905.

AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF THE

Pinto Creek Mining and Smelting Company, of the Territory of Arizona, Certificate of Which was Issued on the Eleventh Day of March, 1897, by the Secretary of the Territory of Arizona.

IT IS HEREBY AGREED, That in accordance with Section 770 of the Revised Statutes of the Territory of Arizona, 1901, and in pursuance of notices duly sent out by said company to each stockholder of the "Pinto Creek Mining & Smelting Company," stating the time, place and purpose of said meeting, the purpose of which was to vote on the increase of the capital stock of said company from 1,000,000 shares to 1,250,000 shares; that at said meeting there were cast for the increase of capitalization 779,084 shares, being more than three-fourths of the capital stock of said corporation and no votes were cast against said increase; that said vote was cancelled by the Board of Directors and declared "Carried." The Board of Directors, by resolution duly seconded and carried, voted to amend Section Five of said Articles of Incorporation as hereinafter set forth.

That Section Five which read as follows:

—V.—
"The amount of capital stock of this Corporation shall be $1,000,000, divided into 1,000,000 shares of the par value of $1.00, fully paid up and forever non-assessable; and the terms and conditions upon which it is to be paid are as follows: The whole of the capital stock to be paid in property necessary for the purposes of this Corporation upon the terms of the Board of Directors, and satisfactory evidence of title and value to the Board of Directors; or the capital stock may be paid into this Corporation in cash for the uses and purposes of this Corporation, in payment for which shares of stock may be issued, and the capital stock so issued shall thereupon and thereby become and be fully paid up and non-assessable."

—V.—
"The amount of capital stock of this Corporation shall be $1,250,000, divided into 1,250,000 shares of the par value of $1.00, fully paid up and forever non-assessable; and the terms and conditions upon which it is to be paid are as follows: The whole of the capital stock to be paid in property necessary for the purposes of this Corporation upon resolution of the Board of Directors, and satisfactory evidence of title and value to the Board of Directors; or the capital stock may be paid into this Corporation in cash for the uses and purposes of this Corporation, in payment for which shares of stock may be issued, and the capital stock so issued shall thereupon and thereby become and be fully paid up and non-assessable."

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Know All Men by These Presents: That we, the undersigned, hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the Territory of Arizona, for which purpose we hereby adopt the following as Articles of Incorporation:

FIRST.
The names of the incorporators are Luther G. Stewart and C. Jerome Clark, and the name of the incorporation is and shall be "The Globe Western Copper Company," and the principal place for the transaction of its business shall be the town of Globe, County of Gila, and Territory of Arizona; and it may have branch offices for the purpose of transacting any business of any kind and nature whatever at any and all such places as the board of directors may from time to time determine.

SECOND.
The general nature of the business to be transacted is as follows:
To acquire in any part of the world, by purchase, condemnation, exchange, location, appropriation, or in any other manner whatsoever, or in any manner whatever, to receive, own, hold, operate, lease, supply, mortgage, sell, or otherwise dispose of, in any part of the world mines, mining properties, ores, deposits of mineral, rock, earth, water, water-rights, power, light, reservoirs, canals, flumes, ditches, pipes, tunnels, aqueducts, dams, sites, rights of way, or other easements, mills, smelters, or other machinery, saw mills, stores, hotels, boarding houses, vessels, tramways, or other kinds of property.

THIRD.
To contribute in any manner to the expense in promoting, constructing, improving, or maintaining in any part of the world, of any kind whatever, however owned, which in the judgment of its board of directors for the time being may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the interests of the Company, and to buy or otherwise acquire, hold, guarantee, pledge, or contract with reference to, or otherwise dispose of in any manner the shares, bonds, obligations of this or of any other corporation, or of individuals.

FOURTH.
To promote, maintain, do, perform, execute, acquire, own, hold, or dispose of, each, all, or anything incidental, convenient, or proper in the judgment of the board of directors for the time being, to carry out or perform any of the matters, things or purposes aforesaid, or connected therewith, or to exercise or acquire any rights or franchises or privileges which may deem necessary, requisite, convenient, useful, incidental or auxiliary, to any of the purposes, objects or things herein, or that in the judgment of the board of directors may tend to advance the interests of the Company directly or indirectly.

FIFTH.
The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be Two Million Dollars, divided into Two Hundred Thousand Shares of the par value of Ten Dollars Each; such stock shall be forever non-assessable, and the time when and the conditions which it is to be paid are as follows, to-wit:

The whole of the capital stock may be paid in cash or in property or valuable services necessary for the purposes of the corporation, upon resolution of the board of directors and evidence of title and value satisfactory to said board of directors.

SIXTH.
The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be the date of the filing of these Articles for record in the office of the Auditor of the Territory of Arizona, and the termination thereof shall be twenty-five years thereafter.

SEVENTH.
The affairs of this corporation are to be and they shall be conducted by a board of directors consisting of not less than five persons and not more than nine, to be determined by a majority vote of the stock, who shall be elected annually on the 31st day of March, A. D. 1906, by the stockholders, and on the said date annually thereafter during the life of this corporation, and no person shall be eligible to the office of board of directors unless he is a stockholder in the corporation; said board of directors shall have power to fill any vacancies occurring in their body, but this shall not be construed to mean that such board of directors may create a vacancy, and until the election of such board of directors the incorporators herein shall manage the affairs of the said corporation.

EIGHTH.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, to which this corporation is at any time to be subject is the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars.

NINTH.
The stockholders of this corporation and their private property shall be exempt from the debts of the corporation.

TENTH.
The board of directors of this corporation shall have power to establish by-laws and make all rules and regulations deemed expedient for the management of its affairs and the officers thereof, not inconsistent with the Constitution and the laws of the United States and the laws of the Territory of Arizona; said board of directors shall have no power to mortgage or encumber or sell the property of the Company without a majority vote of the stock of the Company ratifying the same.

ELEVENTH.
The officers of this corporation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, a Secretary and General Manager, who shall be elected by the stockholders on the 31st day of March, 1906, at 2 o'clock p. m., and annually thereafter on the same date, the officers to serve until the annual meeting 1906, or until their successors duly qualified as stockholders shall be elected, shall be the incorporators herein and stockholders by them appointed hereafter.

NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

To John Taylor and C. B. Ames and All Persons Claiming Under or Through Them:

You are hereby notified that I have expended Five Hundred Dollars in labor and improvements upon the following named mines and mining claims, to-wit: Colorado Mine, King Solomon Mine, Keno Mine, Royal Arch Mine, Keno No. 2 Mine, located in Gun Creek District, Gila County, Arizona, notices of location of which mines are of record in the office of County Recorder of said Gila County, in Books and at pages following respectively, viz: Book 6 of Mines, page 613; Book 8, page 97; Book 7, page 82; Book 7, page 334; Book 7, page 123.

Said work was done and said one hundred dollars on each of said mines was expended during the year 1905, as assessment work for the year 1905, in order to hold said mining claims under the provisions of Section 2324 Revised Statutes of the United States, being the amount required to hold the same for the year 1905. And if within ninety days from the service of this notice, (or within ninety days after this notice, by publication) you fail or refuse to contribute your proportion of such expenditure as co-owner, your interest in said mines or mining claims will become the property of the undersigned under the provisions of said Section 2324.

First Publication February 8, 1906.

FORFEITURE NOTICE

To W. A. Clark, W. M. Steffin and H. H. Schuman, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or Any One Claiming Under Them:

You are hereby notified that the undersigned, H. A. Carther, has expended during the years 1904 and 1905 two hundred dollars ($200.00) in labor and improvements upon each of the following mining claims, situated on or near Slate Creek, four miles west of A. J. Howell's ranch on Tonto Creek, Gila County, Arizona, viz: Steffin's Pride, Red Bandana, Spring, Tiger and Prehistoric Mining Claims, a record of which is made in the office of the Recorder of Gila County, Arizona.

Said expenditures of two hundred dollars for each of the above named claims for the years 1904 and 1905 being a total of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars expended on the five claims (less fifty dollars paid by the said W. A. Clark as part payment for the year 1904), were made by the undersigned in order to hold said mining claims under the provisions of Section 2324 of the Revised Statutes of the United States and amendments thereto concerning annual labor on mining claims, one thousand dollars being the amount required to hold said mining claims for the years above named.

And if within ninety (90) days from personal notice in writing, or within ninety days after the publication hereof you fail or refuse to contribute your portion of said expenditure of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars as co-owners, together with the costs of this advertisement, your interests in the said mining claims will become the property of the undersigned, your co-owner, who has made the required expenditures under the terms of said Section 2324.
